diers' Reunion at Indianapolis, last mined not to permit the glorious spirit circular to be issued:

CLEVELAND, O., September 22.

During the great National Convention of Soldiers' and Sailors', held at Indianapolis on the 20th and 21st instant, to ratify the nomination of Rutherford B. Hayes and William A. Wheeler, for President and Vice President, at a meeting of the Ohio Delegation, representing all sections of the State, it was determined to issue an immediate call for a meeting of the Soldiers' and Sailors' of Ohio, for a similar purpose, to be held at Cleveland, on Tuesday, the third day of October. The proposition met with the most cordial and hearty approval, and all action in relation thereto was unanimous and enthusiastic.

The undersigned, appointed the Local Committee of Arrangements, take pleasure, in behalf of the soldiers of Cleveland, in extending to their old comrades everywhere, an earnest invitation to be present on that day and participate in the exercises. Many of our distinguished soldiers have pledged their presence, among whom may be mentiond Generals Burnside, Logan, Kilpatrick, Garneld, Hurlbut, and Buckland, and others are expected.

We know that the great body of the Union soldiers in the 1ste war stand uncompromisingly by the Republican candidates, being fully pursuaded that the interests of our common country, and Tilden."

the interests of our common country, and Tilden," and the perpetuation of the fruits of and the perpetuation of the fruits of victories won on a hundred well-fought fields, demand a resistance to the encroachments of the "Solid South," backed by Democrats in the North whe did all in their power during the war to hinder and embarrass the progress of the great patriotic armies of our country in putting down treason and rebellion. The taunts and sneers of the "bloody shirt" do not frighten or deter to the second declaration Judge Settle made a fitting reply, in effect as follows:

"Hear, my countrymen, to the old Confederate cry—a word to try and get the people more divided—talking of the 'brave men dipping their hands in Union blood.' I tell you, my people, that the old warriors who desolated your homes, rushed your sons, fathers rebellion. The taunts and sneers of the "bloody shirt" do not frighten or deter us from exercising the well-earned right to express our opinions on the important political questions of the day.

Again we cordially invite the soldiers of Ohio to meet with us on the day designated, to indorse the nomination of our brave and honest comrade in arms, Gen. R. B. Hayes, and of that patriotic man, W. A. Wheeler, whose voice was always heard upon the right side during the dark days of the Republic. The time for preparation is very short, and we urge upon you the importance of extending the information to your comrades at the earliest possible moment, and that you take measures your comrades at the earliest possible mantled and laid up for the winter. Business must be bad on the unsalted seas.

speech by the latter: "When the wolf comes to the farmer "When the wolf comes to the farmer and demands that all the old bitternesses that have existed between them shall be healed; when the wolf insists upon it that bygones shall be bygones, and that they shall shake hands over the bloody chasm of sheep corpses, I do not believe you can find a farmer sufficiently kindly to take the promises of the wolf of future good behaviour and place him in charge of the flock. Laughter.] The welf doubtless will make the point: 'Look at the shepherd dog in charge of your flocks. He is dog in charge of your flocks. He is getting old; he is ugly; he is vicious; he has pups who have behaved badly; he has treated me with the utmost unhe has treated me with the utmost unkindness; he has pursued and followed me vindictively everywhere; and, in his old age, now and then a lamb has escaped." The farmer wifl say to him: 'My dear, deluded Democratic wolf, it may be quite possible that I will change this shepherd dog for another shepherd dog, but so long as God lives shepherd dog, but so long as God lives f will never change a shepherd dog for a wolf.' [Laughter and applause.] Now, if we have got tired of our old shepherd dog at the head of affairs, whose teeth have gone into and thromany a Democratic wolf; if some oi his pups have behaved rather badly and we do not like the way they have been.

The Cause and the Cure.

[New York Evening Post, Sept. 16.]
Carl Schurz is keeping the financial question where it belongs, in the front of the canvass. "The times are hard and the people want a change." This is the burden of the Democratic canvass, stripped of its personalities and the slang and cant of platform arraignments. Certainly the times have been hard, though there are happily signs of improvement. The people indeed do desire a change, but it is not a mere hange of parties, least of all such a change as the restoration of the Democratic party would involve. They are rather inclined to inquire into the cause of their financial troubles and to apply to them a remedy which is practical and philosophical.

The position of the Democrats on this foremost question is tersely defined by Mr. Schurz. Their candidates are "a hard-money man for vice-priesident."

It makes very little difference what the case is, whether it be Wrench, Sprain, Poli-Evil, Ringbone, Scratches or Lamenses of any kind, the effects are the same. Liverymen, Stage proprietors, Farmera, &c., should never be without the Yellow Centaur Liniment. It is sold everywhere, and warranted in its effects.

ON ITS TENTH TRIUMPHAL ANNUAL TOUR.

Greatly enlarged and augmented, and bejeweled with dazzling splendor, as an especially appropriate offering for the centennial year. The Monster Aggregation is positively three times the largest show on earth, representing more money, furnishing more instructive and useful amusement, and combining more moral tendencies, genuine merit, solid weight and elevated character than all other establishments of a similar nature in the country.

Fifty odd Statue-Ornamented Cages of Wild Beasts, Exotic Birds, Monsters of the Deep, and Crawling Reptiles. A Museum of All that is unaccountable and wonderful in the curious world. A Circus Classic, Moral and Refined,

The following are the provisions of the act of April 2d, 1859, with reference to the Semi-Annual collection of Taxes:

Section 1. That each person charged with Taxes on a Tax Duplicate in the hands of a County Treasurer may of his option, pay the full amount of such Taxes on or before the Twentieth day of December, or one-half thereof on or before the Twentieth day of December, and the remaining half thereof on or before the Twentieth day of December, and the remaining half thereof on or before the Twentieth day of June next ensuing.

Section 4. When one-half of the taxes as aforesaid, charged against any entry on Tax Duplicate in the hands of a County Treasurer shall not be paid on or before the Twentieth day of December next, after the same shall have been so charged, as may at the time be prescribed by law, together with a penalty of five per centum on the amount of taxes so delinquent, and in all cases where such half of any taxes, other than on real estate, shall not have been paid on the Twentieth day of December, the whole amount of taxes, other than on real estate, for the current year so charged, shall be due and delinquent, and shall be collected in the manner and with the penalty in this section.

Section 5. When one-half of taxes charged against any entry of real estate, shall not be paid on or before the Twentieth day of December in each year, or collected by distress or otherwise prior to the February settlement, as authorized by this act, a penalty of twenty per cent. thereon shall be added to such half of said taxes on the duplicate, and if said taxes and penalty, including the remaining half of such taxes shall be paid on or before the Twentieth day of June next thereafter, or collected by distress or otherwise prior to next August settlement, the same penalty shall be charged on said last half of said taxes, and the amount of the whole together shall constitute the delinquent taxes on such real estate, to be collected in the manner that is or may be prescribed by law, and if the amount of such as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years, with a constantly growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote, and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive disorders of the skin, Tunnors, Blotches, Bolls, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhœa, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons.

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languer of the season. Even where no disorder appears, people feel better, and Jve longer, for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of life.

Ayer's Hair Vigor, For restoring to Gray Hair its healthy, and effectual for hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimu-lated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the forma-tion of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING. nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume
